Work in pairs.

Student A: It's the middle of the summer holidays now. Your friend is showing you his / her list of holiday plans. Ask about every item on the list.

- Check what he / she has already done and what he / she hasn't done yet.
- Find out which things he / she has just done.

Student B: It's the middle of the summer holidays now. Show your list of holiday plans to your friend. Answer his / her questions. Give details in your answers using the present perfect with just, still, yet, and already.

Swap roles.

Have you already swum in the lake?

No, I haven't. I still haven't been to the lake.
